

HUB NEWS

We all walked to Grey Lynn Park for our recent Athletics Day. The weather was kind to us and our students participated with enthusiasm. We were proud of their team spirit and their efforts. A special congratulations to all those who entered the Championship events.

We are continuing our theme of Celebrations during Inquiry and Literacy. Here's just one of our creative poems about Guy Fawkes:

*In the sky where it's high
Fireworks fly passing by.
Family and people surround
Fireworks fall on the ground.
Whoosh goes the sky rocket
Into the night
Pop as it explodes shiny and bright.
Ooh! Aah goes the crowd with delight.
Some kids scream with fright!*

By Anais Harrison.

Don't forget to visit during our Treasure Hunt of Learning on Thursday 23rd November 9:00am to 11:00am when you can see and hear more of our leaning. Please join us for morning tea.

We have also planted My Little Garden seeds to celebrate Spring. We are now caring for these and eagerly watching their progress.

Watch out for your notice about our forthcoming Hub trip. Let's hope the weather is again kind to us. It will be a great celebratory day.
