The tamaiti were outstanding with their performance at the Cordis Hotel to the NZ Anaesthetist conference on Friday. Thank you those who got their children to school early and helped get them ready. MiM did themselves and the school proud. They looked great in their new outfits.

Fa'afetai tele lava to all the students and families who turned up on Saturday to the gala and performed and helped out with the chop suey stand.

It was another outstanding performance from the MIM tamaiti and delicious food from our parents.
