“Ka mate kāinga tahi,
ka ora kāinga rua.”

Kei aku rangatira nō te tī, nō te tā, anei mātou o Te Whānau Whāriki e whakamānawa atu nei ki a koutou katoa. Ko te manako e ora mārika ana koutou i raro i ngā parirau o ngā atua. Auē te makariri hoki!

It has been a busy term so far, and the days are getting colder. We are happy to have started moving into the classrooms down by the field, they are nice and warm! Moving is well underway and the kaiako and tamariki have been working hard to set up in our new akomanga. We will still be moving the remaining resources over the week ahead so any helping hands are welcome. “Mā pango, mā whero, ka oti ai te mahi.” E mihi ana ki a koutou.

Te Wiki Pukapuka!

Recently we had Book Week at kura. Ko te whakanui i te mana o te pukapuka. A huge mihi to all the tamariki who came dressed as a book character for the book parade. They looked awesome. Kei runga noa atu rātou!

Pink Shirt Day!

I whakanui a RRS i te rā tihāte māwhero. He kaupapa hei whakakore i te mahi whakaweti. Whakanuia kia tika!

We celebrated National Pink Shirt Day which highlights Anti-bullying. We think this kaupapa definitely deserves our tautoko, and so do our tamariki who came dressed in pink to show their support. He mahi rangatira nā koutou!

Our Mātāmua class also designed their own Anti-bullying posters as part of a whole-school competition. Here are a few to look at. Kāore i ārikarika ngā mihi ki ō rātou whakaaro atawhai. Awesome work, Mātāmua mā.
