“Ko te kai a te rangatira, he korero”

E te tī, e te tā kua tata ngā rā whakangā. Kua pukumahi ā tātou tamariki ki te tutuki i ngā mahi katoa o te wāhanga tuatoru. E rua wiki noa iho e toe ana, kia kakama tātou!!

Our tamariki have been working hard this term, the kaiako would like to give a big mihi for the effort put in. After this week we only have one more week left until the holidays kia kaha tātou.

There will be an email sent out with the dates of Kapa Haka for term 4. Please keep an eye on your inbox. It is important that all children attend these practices. Once we come back from the holidays we only have 5 weeks and our tamariki will be giving it their all on stage.

Open Day

In the past two weeks we have held two open days to invite new whānau to Te Whānau Whāriki. We would like to say a huge thank you to Matua Mark, Whaea Simone, Whaea Rebecca, and to all other mātua who have contributed to promoting our whānau. We had a ball with ngā tamariki o Te Kōhanga o Ritimana hoki!
