

What has happened?

Adieux

We said goodbye to Noe, Sabina, Prosper, Pedro, Charlotte and Jonathan...

Shared lunch

Because you can't say a proper goodbye without sharing some kai, l'Archipel had a great shared lunch to send off the leavers.

Assembly

Last assembly was very special: we all said our final goodbye to L'Archipel's leavers, to our Principal Jonathan and to Seba, our colleague from the Hub.

It was also a celebration of our student musicians after their piano competition. Many students in Fifi's care are from L'Archipel and they did really well.

School Assembly Principal's Award

Last week's assembly saw Gauvin Carden awarded for his consistent, exceptional academic effort in all subjects and for being a passionate tidy kiwi.

Week 1 Term 3 2018

Matariki Soup

To celebrate Matariki and add healthy homemade kai to our shared lunch, we made our very own soup - reading and following a recipe (instructional text), students peeled, chopped, fried, stirred, poured, mixed and finally enjoyed...

A big thank you to Sarah Fearnside for the beautiful gift she gave us: a big bag of baguettes and 2 huge boxes of the most beautiful bread from Wild Wheat.

Starry Matariki celebrations

Enjoy our children happy faces with their very own 3D stars they made to celebrate Matariki.

Week 1 Term 3 2018

Junior Sandwich Making

Juniors were enjoying creating their own lunches from a variety of yummy food they brought from home. There is no tastier sandwich than the one made by yourself - that is why there were no leftovers or any crumbs on the table. Even the birds that are used to being fed by all the leftovers around the lunch boxes, had to search somewhere else - the children ate everything they have prepared, and with such an appetite that the experience is well worth repeating!

Bunnings experience

A word from our local activities co-ordinator at Bunnings on the day spent with some of RRS Year 6 students to make workbenches for the school:

"Hi David,

Just wanted to say a huge thank you to you and the Year 6 kids for coming along to our store today to take part in building the workbenches. It was a great success, I have put the wheels on the second bench and they look fantastic side by side. We have had lots of customers asking us how much they can buy one for! Ha!

Thank you to the kids for being so polite and patient today, they were really great to work with. Lots of future tradies in that group I think!"

Ka pai tamariki!

Dream Team Speaker

Jacob Anderson shared his experience with RRS to inspire our students to strengthen their leadership abilities.

Jacob is the Environmental Programme Manager for the Sir Peter Blake Trust. He manages the Blake Ambassador and Environmental Educator programmes and coordinated the science communication and outreach for the recent Young Blake Expedition to the Kermadec Islands earlier this year. He is currently a Sir Robin Irvine Scholar and is undertaking his PhD at the University of Otago. His research focuses on past Antarctic climate and ice sheet behaviour. He has participated in five scientific expeditions to Antarctica, and has been on two expeditions to the Sub-Antarctic Auckland Islands as part of the Department of Conservation yellow-eyed penguin monitoring programme and on the 2016 Young Blake Expedition.

What is happening?

Our inquiry

Where do stories, Legends and Myths come from?

From Māori Matariki legends to Greek mythology, we will be investigating the importance of storytelling, why legends and myths are so important and what messages they carry.
